New Information

GradPoint: Reminder that your GradPoint class must be complete by the end of the day today at 12:45 PM! otherwise all your work will be erased when we switch over to a new system. When you finish your GradPoint class, you must check in with Mrs. Bell to let her know that you are complete and to make sure you get credit for the class!

The Sardis Raptor Center is in need of volunteers who are willing to help care for birds of prey. For more information check out the flyer on the Volunteer board outside the Counseling Center.

Students looking for summer or full time employment there are many opportunities available within the county. Seniors, we have received many emails from local employers who need you! Stop by the Career Center or check out the bulletin board for more information.
