Stuffy Shakespeare? No way! Romeo & Juliet has got it all: knife fights, teenage romance, sleeping potions, inappropriate jokes (yes, really). You won't want to miss this one. Here's the story:

The Montagues and the Capulets hate each other... for no reason other than their name. Violence rules the streets, and nobody crosses the line separating the two houses. Until Romeo, a Montague, and Juliet, a Capulet, fall in love, breaking all the rules, and force the city of Verona to cope with the consequences.

Why do we fight? What happens to a society divided by baseless hate? Featuring fight choreography from American Musical and Dramatic Academy alumni Carly Williams (Sehome class of '15), Romeo & Juliet will use Shakespearean text with modern characterizations to discover the answers.

Performances

November 8, 9, 10 - 7:00 pm

November 15 (Sehome Night) - 3:45 pm

November 16 - 7:00 pm

November 17 (Closing Matinee) - 2:00 pm

Note:

This production contains mature themes. "Talk-backs" with the cast and production team will take place after each performance. Parental guidance is recommended.

A WestPoint cadet will be at Sehome Monday, November 19th (time TBD) to share about her experience. If you would like to learn more about a service academy as a post high school option please sign up in the Career Center.

Students! Come to the counseling office before Anchor on Wednesdays to sign up and get your Anchor pass for FUR TIME with KODI! Kodi, the GoldenDoodle, will be available every other Wednesday, during Anchor, for Pet Therapy.
